

Travelling by Car

Headcorn Aerodrome is just 15 minutes south of Junction 8 of the M20. Shenley road can be found off the A274 Biddenden Road approximately 1 mile south of Headcorn village.

Address:

Headcorn Aerodrome
Shenley Road
Headcorn
Ashford
Kent TN27 9HX

From the M20

Leave the M20 at junction 8, sign-posted Lenham A20 and Leeds Castle. Turn right at the third roundabout onto the B2163 for Leeds Castle, Leeds and Langley. Stay on this road to a major crossroads and turn left onto the A274 to Sutton Valence and Headcorn. Keep going (approx. 4 miles) until you have driven through Headcorn, over a railway line and passed industrial buildings on your right. Turn left at the next crossroads, sign-posted Smeden and Pluckley. The main airfield entrance is about half a mile along this road.

For more travel information

Traveline will help you plan your journey from door to door:
www.traveline.org.uk
or call 0871 200 22 33

Travelling by Train

Southeastern trains run frequent services to and from Headcorn Station which is only 1.5 miles away. Please check their website for further details.
www.southeasternrailway.co.uk

Road conditions

For up to date travel information:
www.kent.gov.uk/transport-and-streets

Please always check your travel information on the day, remember your tickets and most important of all have a safe journey.